BRAYAN CARRANZA — BRAYANCARRANZA02@GMAIL.COM

Refund: $30

Subject: You were right — refund on the way

Hi Brayan,

First off, I owe you an apology. When you flagged the billing problem, we asked you for proof of a double charge and basically put it back on you — that was the wrong call, and I'm sorry for the runaround.

I dug into it properly and you were right. You were on our Basic plan but the system was charging you the Pro rate ($29.99 instead of $19.99). That's a mistake on our end, not yours.

Here's what I'm doing about it: I'm refunding you $30 for the overcharge, and I've already fixed your plan so you're paying the correct $19.99 going forward. The refund should land back on your card within 5–10 business days.

Thanks for your patience with this, and sorry again for the hassle. If anything still looks off, just reply here and it comes straight to me.

GERARDO — GP6981@YAHOO.COM

Refund: $20 (already refunded $10)

Subject: The rest of your refund

Hi Gerardo,

Following up on the billing issue you reported. You were on Basic but getting charged the Pro rate ($29.99 instead of $19.99), which was our mistake.

I sent back $10 already, and I've now refunded the remaining $20 for the other months you were overcharged. I also corrected your plan so it bills the right $19.99 from here on out. The refund should show up on your card within 5–10 business days.

Really appreciate you flagging it — it helped us catch the same problem for a few other people. Anything else looks wrong, just reply and I'll sort it.

Refund: $10

Subject: We overcharged you — refund on the way

Hi Katelynn,

Quick heads up and an apology. We found a billing mistake on our side: you were on the Basic plan but got charged the Pro rate ($29.99 instead of $19.99) for a month.

I've refunded you the $10 difference and fixed your plan so it charges the correct $19.99 going forward. The refund should be back on your card within 5–10 business days.

Sorry for the mix-up — that one's on us. If you spot anything else, just reply here.
